“ Shari and I were good friends in Henderson, NV, in the early 1970's. Darcy was born two months after my first child was born. She and Lewis had a good marriage and were both friends of mine. Such good people and Shari and I shared the joys of motherhood and she was always there for me as my marriage was not a happy one. After I moved to Nebraska and she and Lewis moved to Illinois we would talk on the phone for hours maybe once or twice a year. Time did not matter, we were still friends and picked up where we had left off. Shari loved her two children and was such a good, kind, thoughtful person. I am truly sorry for the loss to her family.
