

Norman Shreffler

August 28, 1932 - March 3, 2015

Norman D. "Norm" Shreffler, 82, of Baton Rouge, La., passed away at 6:06 a.m. on March 3, 2015, in Baton Rouge, La. Norm was born Aug. 28, 1932, in his grandparents' farm home in Limestone Township. He and his wife, Jo Ann Dillard Shreffler, had been residents of Baton Rouge, La., since 1976. He was a graduate of the Shreffler Grade School, Reddick High School and the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign, where he earned a bachelor's degree in agriculture. After receiving a 2nd Lt. Commission from the U.S. Air Force, he proceeded to earn Pilot Wings and was assigned to Strategic Air Command, Carswell Air Force Base, Fort Worth, Texas. During primary pilot training, in May 1955, he and Jo Ann were married in Sabinal, Texas. Upon completion of military service in 1957, Norman chose Cargill Inc. for his lifetime employer, serving 36 years as grain merchant, branch office and export facility manager, and export coordinator, before retiring in 1993. His most recent position was as a retirement management employee of Cargill Inc. Genealogy ranked high among his hobby interests as were the sports of tennis and golf. He was a member of Broadmoor United Methodist Church; and a past member of the Kansas City Board of Trade. Preceding Norman in death were his father, Fayette E. Shreffler, in 1961; and his mother, Leona Davis Shreffler. Surviving are his wife of 59 years; son, Kerry D. Shreffler, of Baton Rouge, La.; daughter, Dawn E. Shreffler Daddario, of Nashville, Tenn.; grandchildren, Caleb Dean Shreffler, of Baton Rouge, La., Chandler T. Daddario and Courtney E. Daddario, of Nashville, Tenn. The family would like to thank his caregivers, Donna Chenevert and her family, and Sheila McNabb. A memorial gathering will be from 10 a.m. Tuesday until the 11 a.m. funeral services at Schreffler Funeral Homes, Kankakee Chapel, with the Rev. Scott Henley officiating. Interment will be in Shreffler Cemetery in Limestone Township. Please sign his online guestbook at schrefflerfuneralhome.com.
