“ We are saddened to learn that you're mourning the loss of your dear love one. However, it saddens our God even more. No doubt, you have many fond memories which will resurface from time to time. And because you do have memories, certainly shows that almighty God has memories as well. Therefore, with full confidence you can take comfort in knowing that he longs to restore perfect life to all those in his memory (Job 14:13-15; Rev 21:3, 4). Please accept our condolences at this most distressing time.

“ What a true servant of the Living God. My life has been touched in a wonderful way in the past 14 years that I have known Steve. Always cheerful, no matter what the circumstance. Always smiling, no matter what was going on. And I will never forget his sharing of the Word, in great current context, on our Communion Sundays. I will truly miss him. I know that he is receiving his great reward. My love and condolences to his family.

“ Amy's Uncle Steve was a true man of God. Whenever I was around him, I could feel the Spirit of God with him. He had a quiet strength and an assurance of faith in God that is rarely felt. He performed communion for Amy and I at our wedding and also dedicated both of our children to the Lord (Justin and Ezekiel). I will truly miss his sense of humor and our conversations about the Lord. Go and rest in the Lord, Good and Faithful Servant. Till we meet again...

“ Steve was a very dear friend and brother in Christ. I miss him already.
We didn't miss a Sunday where he greeted me, or I him.
I so appreciated his short sermonettes on Communion Sunday.
Worship will be sad n different for awhile.
He set an example that I just was just drawn to, as were many.
Deanna and I pray for comfort and healing for the family.
Don't worry about Steve, he is not conducting a service in remembrance, he is THERE.

“ We will miss the many times we visited together, ate together and "shopped" together. Poor Steve and Angelo had to put up with us ladies on our outings, but they always did it with grace and humor. Steven had a way of catching me off guard every time he answered the phone. After exchanging pleasantries, he'd asked me how I was and I would say "fine"; his remark would always be "aren't you glad you got to talk to me today?" It always made me laugh. I am so glad for the memories we made and the times we spent together. We will miss you Steven, and we will love Anita and take care of her until we all meet once again in Heaven. Don't worry Steven - we will have everything we need There and won't need to shop! Fondly -
