“ I have alot of memories with Steve so many I can't just post one but he was one helluva friend for life and when I was out of Commission because of my back my little short fat buddy was at my house mowing my lawn him and me were the only ones that would do the whole hill he would drink a beer and go right at that hill and he never asked for anything except make sure there was gas In the mower and I always had beer there for him and would buy him a nice big steak to cook on the grill but he was the only one that would get the grill marks on both sides and it was done I swear I heard a few moo's but that's the way he liked it. You'll surely be missed my friend you touch every body you meet in your own way and was always laughing. Goodbye for now my brother from another mother till we meet again.
