“ So sorry for your loss, Marla. I have so many fond memories of growing up across the alley from you guys, playing games with Terry and our wrestling matches in your backyard. Enjoyed all the pictures here of you, Terry and your Mom and Dad. You will be missed, my friend.

“ Terry will be greatly missed. I always enjoyed listening to his stories he loved telling me about the night Marla was born. He had many tales of family vacations growing up and his love for his sister was a main part of them.

“ Terry was greatly loved and will be just as greatly missed. He touched so many lives during his life. He was kind and funny and could recite word for word almost any western movie or tv show, down to the plot twists and character names! Sometimes at night the residents and staff of Our Lady were treated to an Elvis concert courtesy of Terry's music collection. But the Best of all his qualities was his love for Marla, his sister was his biggest fan and he was hers. Their closeness was wonderful to watch, and hopefully will be a comfort to Marla now.
