“ Dom was a rare gifted individual, a renaissance man who did well at everything he decided to do. His passing is sad and he will be missed. He was a great cook, tennis player, teacher, bean counter, and a computer guy when computers were new. And a good friend.

“ Uncle Dominic was a very special man, kind, considerate, great father and uncle with great offspring to be proud of. Of course behind every great man was a great woman (aunt Donna). A lot of his past students from KCC tell me how wonderful a teacher he was and what a difference he made in their lives. Cannot wait till our wonderful Ciaccio family all are reunited again in paradise!

“ Dominic was a good man and a valued colleague of mine at KCC-- and nearly a backyard neighbor of ours in Gracefield--for many years. He also "taught me a few things" on the tennis court when I was foolish enough to play against him. One of his shortcomings, of course, was his loyalty to the Chicago Cubs (just kidding, from a Cardinals fan). Seriously, though, we extend to all of Dominic's children and the entire family our heartfelt sympathy in his passing. May he rest in peace and cherish his reunion with his beloved Donna.
