“ I will never forget when Uncle Neal had me sniff the spot under the front porch water faucet to see if it smelled like stawberry, vanilla, or chocolate, we all know what happened next, I was only 4. I also remember coming around the bend on the Niangua River and he was standing on the bank ringing the water out of his carton of cigarettes after capsizing, now that was funny.

God Bless,
Kevin (KC) & Marva Thomas
