“ I meet Theresa at Shapiro when she was transferred to my unit. We became friends shortly after we laughed and got in trouble together. I will never forget all the good times we had going to lunch ,dinner and all the shopping we did. Thanks for being a great friend!! Always loved when she had new pictures of the grandkids she loved them and her kids soo much.. Will never forget you and will always remember you. Prayers to the family.

“ Theresa and I met while working at Shapiro. We instantly connected and became great friends for many years. She was always there when I needed an ear. We often had midnight breakfast at a local restaurant in mومence after work. We would often be the only ones there thank god because sometimes we would be loud cackling hens in there. We shared so much laughter and tears. I truly enjoyed TJ sense of humor. Although rough around the edges she was such a softy. She had a great heart. Always ended up talking about her kids. Even though they got on her nerves she loved them all just the same. Then her grandkids came. Boy did she smile and glow from ear to ear. Going to miss you my friend. ❤️
