*I realize it's going to be 4 years starting next week. that my brother Troy has been gone. and I realize that no one has posted on this site but I'll be the first better Kate than never, Troy growing g up we had are problems here and there, but grew out of them as we got older. But still always had the most annoying personality with your teasing and busting chops, I'd roll my eyes at you and say " get out of here " but I new it was out of hood fun but you skways dud have your good moments as well it was always just you and me around. we have our times . We I come visit you in your home just B. S' ing laughing , hangout for lunch or dinner and the last uears with you on this planet were the best years ever. If it weren't for those last four years. I would end up having a lot of regret on things. but no need because those last year's became the best years. say hi, to Mom , grandma and grandpa for me
Your brother
