“ I have not been able to write anything about Rena since I heard of her passing. I loved Rena and we have so many great memories throughout the years of friendship. The laughing, giggling, passing hundreds of notes during classes. The signing times of The Beatles, Julie Brown, and the times in Chorus Performance when we (seriously accidentally) sang out “we need a little Angel sitting on our ‘soulder”)... I have always thought immediately of Rena whenever I hear THAT song!! Her spot on responses and opinions she never kept to herself.... I love her and will miss her so much.

“ You’re gone too soon, I am so grateful for our dinners and cocktails and our movie nights. You were a great sous chef for our holiday meals. So many memories of laughter and tears as we worked through our childhood trauma together Rest now sister until we meet again.
