“ Grandma...I don't know what to say. I love you so much. I will miss you always, but I can't tell you how happy it makes me to know you are back with grandpa again. Holding your hand as you took your last breath, me and mom could see the smile on your face. You were the best!! The best walking partner. The best cheerleader. The best supporter. The best family historian. The best shopper...who knew all the seasons styles and "in" colors!! You made it for Manhattan time on Thursday. Cheers to that!! I'll love you always. Hug grandpa real tight for me

“ I met Jean at church and our friendship grew when she was able to attend church services..we often sat next to each other. On one instance, when she needed a ride, I picked her up and upon coming home afterward, she invited me into her very lovely home. I told her I thought we had similar tastes, her home was so cozy. She enjoyed sharing stories of her Bill and many pictures and news of the grandchildren she loved so much. I truly enjoyed our times together.
