My deepest sympathy at the loss of Vic. My thoughts and prayers are with you. I always remember Vic at the Hardees on South Schyuler, reading the Wall Street Journal. That kind of impressed me because I always thought he was "so young" to be interested in the WSJ. ??? Go figure!! Guess all I was interested in was a big hamburger. Take care of yourself P. “ So shocked and saddened to hear about Vic. I always pictured Vic as a perpetual throwback to the '60's'...took life in such stride. I will never forget the New Year's Eve parties, and how he took me in when I had no place to go my first semester at ISU. He was such a free and gentle spirit. My prayers are with Patty and the Conway family. May you find peace and comfort in the promise of our Savior.

“VIC, was a friend I have not seen in a long time. He was always mellow and level headed, never got to excited or upset. a very rare thing in human nature today. He will be sorely missed.

“We had a wonderful childhood, spent a lot of time playing when we were younger! Vic was the king of the "Wet Willies", first time he did this to me, I was furious, and he just laughed at me! Fun!

“ Vic was always the big brother one step ahead of us all the time, (pick a number from 1 through 10 he would say, it looked like he wrote 7, when he turned the paper around it was a 1) His laughter was absolutly his own.

“ To Pattie and other family members and friends:

Victor was a friend of the Reynolds family for 50 years. He helped our Mother for years when she was sick and needed someone to help her and who really cared for her near her. That person was Victor (with help from others too).

He was laid back and helpful to all of us. Vic was a truly a wonderful person.
