“ I'm so sorry for your loss. Warren was my neighbor across the street. He was a kind and generous man from the moment we moved in. He was full of wonderful stories and solid advice. I appreciated him always "keeping an eye on" our home when we were out of town. He will be missed!

“ Warren my brother was a very strong man and always said what he thought!
He as a young child would draw Disney characters freehand. He was always good at art in school. In visiting him in his last days he gave me a carving he did of an American Eagle. That means so much to me , because that was him.
God Bless Him
