“ I thought I was the weird mom that hung out at school with their kiddo. I was wrong! Another mom was at the school in the same class! That's how I meet kim and Zack.
Zack became maruas best friend. Alot of maruas first were with Zack, her first air-soft gun, her first tree house, her first sleep over, her first bike ramp. With Zack and marua I had found a really great pal!
I enjoyed the time I got with all the kids, taking Brooklyn to soccer practice and games. Teaching them about Jesus in Sunday school. Listening to the cries when matt was there because there wasn't enough of anyone to go around.
When I started hanging out with josh that made Marua and zack excited! They were now cousins.
Things happened we moved back to michigan but when zack found out we had moved back to illinois he wanted marua to move to the same town. They talked all the time.
They are young, I have my very own 13yr old! Kim will always be the woman I want to be I. The mom I need to be! The friend I'm not!
Brooklyn has grown so much and has endures so much for such a young lady, it will make her a wonderful mother sister friend and woman others look up too
I love yall so much

“ Last time I talked to Zack was just a few months ago and it was such a fun conversation about the Bulls and how he was so happy he was feeling good. I loved the light is always saw in his eyes whenever I did have the opportunity to talk with him it always gave me hope. Love you Zack it may not have been often we talked but every conversation meant more than you could have ever known! ”

“ Zack, I love you more than words can even begin to express. I tried to be by your side every step of the way and did as much as I could. It warmed my heart to know you wanted me there and how much you loved me. You worried about others even when you had so much going on yourself. Papa was one of the people who you always wanted to make sure was alright, if he needed anything, how his Dr.s appt. went etc.. I gained so much strength and courage from you. You are and will always be my HERO. Truly blessed to share the 13 almost 14 years of your life with you. I will take care of your Momma, sister and brothers like you knew I would. You always told me I know I can count on you Nana! Give your Dad Uncle Fred and my Parents a big hug! Until we meet again~ "Fly High Buddy" Call all you my heartbeats.....and my heart may skip a beat but you'll always be there.

“ *I am so glad I stopped at sequels last fall when I did & was able to reconnect with the three of you.
I was fortunate to be both Zak & Brooklyns preschool teacher.
My heart was full of joy to sit and chat with Zak & then to be able to keep up with him via social media in the months that would follow.
My heart was so heavy when I heard about his passing. I am not sure I have words that would comfort you. Zak put up a fight & he was blessed to always have you right by his side.
In the days and weeks ahead may you find comfort in all of the memories that you made with your son.
Rest in peace*

“ My deepest sympathies goes out to Kim and her family. There are no words that I can say to probably give you the comfort you need. After only knowing you for a short bit of time I know that you are a strong woman and I know that Zach was probably no different. A fighter to the end I am sure. Just know in your heart that he didn't lose the battle he was promoted to do greater things. "Cancer lost the battle against you Because it originally planned to make you weaker but Inadvertently made you stronger-Anonymous" If there is anything I can do for you and your family please let me know.
